

Bloomington Public Schools High School/Middle School Charging Guidelines

Students at Bloomington High School/Middle have the following charging policy on their lunch account: Students are not allowed to charge on their lunch accounts for ala carte items or extra servings. All students receive one free reimbursable lunch and breakfast each school day. A student must have money on their lunch account to purchase any ala carte items or extra servings.

A student with negative accounts that are inactive will be held accountable according to the Bloomington Public Schools Bad Debt Guidelines.

This institution is an equal opportunity provider.